

LIECHTENSTEINER FUSSBALLVERBAND

LFV – Information Media 2013-2014

Football in Liechtenstein

Founded:	1934
FIFA Membership:	1974 / 142nd Member
UEFA Membership:	1974 / 34th Member
Clubs:	7 FC Balzers = 1st League FC Triesen = 3rd League FC Triesenberg = 2nd League FC Vaduz = Challenge League (Second highest League in Switzerland) FC Schaan = 2nd League USV Eschen-Mauren = 1st League FC Ruggell = 3rd League Since 1933, all of the Liechtenstein Clubs play in the Swiss Championship.
National stadium:	Rheinpark Stadium, Vaduz
Members:	1.700
Licensed Players:	1.200
Most successful club:	FC Vaduz – plays in the second highest Swiss League. 41 Cup wins, has played in the Europa League qualification (18 times)
President:	Matthias Voigt (since 2012)
FIFA/Coca Cola World Ranking:	Best standing: 118 (January/February 2008)
European Championship Qualification 2008:	Most successful European Championship qualification results ever: Two wins against Iceland (3:0) and Latvia (1:0), and one draw against Iceland (1:1)
World Cup Qualification 2006:	Most successful World Cup qualification results ever: Two wins against Luxembourg (3:0 and 4:0), two draws against Portugal (2:2) and Slovakia (0:0)
First Int. Competition:	Participation at the UEFA EC-qualification 1996
First International Game:	9 March, 1982: Liechtenstein – Switzerland 0:1 (Friendly Match)
Highest win:	13 October 2004 Luxembourg – Liechtenstein 0:4 (WC Qualification 06)

The Liechtenstein FA is the biggest sports association in Liechtenstein.

Sport in Liechtenstein

Associations:	46
Head of Associations:	LOSV Liechtensteinischer Olympischer Sportverband - www.losv.li
Clubs:	134
Members of Club:	15.000
1936:	First time that Athletes from Liechtenstein competed in the Olympics Skiing: Hubert Nägele und Franz Schädler, Triesenberg Bobsleigh: Eugen Büchel & Baron Eduard von Falz-Fein
National sports:	Since 1936, athletes from Liechtenstein have won 9 Olympic Medals, all of them in skiing which is the national sport of Liechtenstein Football (summer time) Skiing (winter time)